SHINE A LIGHT (Siân Pottok)

Shine a light on our life
Shine magic
Shine a light on our life
Shine magic

How far will they go
How much will we know
Left alone condemned to misery's blow
Abusing rights and life
Day after day
But you don't give up hope
Keep fighting in every way

Plundering towns
Souls armed to the teeth
Tearing innocence apart
Like flowers in captivity
Gutted to core
By new technologies
you don't give up hope
Keep rising in every way

Shine a light on our life
Shine magic
Shine a light on our life
Shine magic
And stop this war

But you're beauty's beyond
What can be perceived
The flora your wear is like a lioness in grief
Ready to keep and protect
Your dignity
Red lands resonate to hearts beating in unity

Oh we can hear you dance and sing
With all your might Chaos but the hope within
Powers you to ignite the light
As we come together
To end this wars sorrow

And seize the dawn of a brand new tomorrow

Shine a light on our life
Shine magic
Shine a light on our life
Shine magic
And stop this war
