LAYERS (Siân Pottok)

Layers
Drop the layers
No more layers
Open up and let me see you through

Talk to me
You can be unclear
I just need to feel
That you’re near

Thirteen winters
Of silence drowning out the years
Oh I’m losing ancre
Building fear

Layers
Drop the layers
No more layers
Open up and let me see you true

Talk to me
You can be, be unclear
I just need to feel
That you’re near

Layers
Drop the layers
No more layers
Open up and let me see you through
